

We have lived by it for two hundred years, and are full believers in its efficacy in all cases of dispute, local or international, and this meeting now looks with feelings of great satisfaction upon the effort making in your Honorable Bodies to accomplish this great and good work, and we earnestly trust, that the hands of those who are laboring in the cause may be strengthened, and that the necessary legislation, as proposed, may be accomplished, and arbitration become engrafted upon the statutes of our State.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

EDWD. STABLER, JR.,
T. BURLING HALL,

And Others.
