

“Sec. 8. Be it enacted, That if a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of the Ridgely District, then the lines and boundaries of said district shall be and remain as hereinbefore provided for in this Act, and Ridgely shall thereafter be the polling place of said district.

“Sec. 9. Be it enacted, That if a majority of the votes so cast shall be in favor of the Hillsborough District, then the voting place shall be at Hillsborough, and the said election district shall be known as the Sixth, or Hillsborough District, and shall be bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on Choptank river, at the mouth of Tuckahoe creek, and running northerly with Choptank river to the Stock Landing Mills, thence with the present dividing line between the Second and Third Election Districts, to the head of Tuckahoe creek, at Willson’s, or Turner’s mills, thence southerly, with Tuckahoe creek to the place of beginning.

“Sec. 10. Be it enacted, That in the event of a majority of the votes so cast shall be in favor of the Hillsborough District, that each and all of the several provisions of Sections 3, 4 and 5, of this Act, shall apply to the said election district, known as the Hillsborough, or Sixth Election District of Caroline County.

“Sec. 11. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.”

Pending the consideration of said amendments,

Mr. Joyce moved that said bill, together with said amendments, be referred to the Committee on Elections.

Which motion was adopted.

Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal Sections 84 and 85, and sub-Section 1, of Section 87, of Article 11, of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled “Frederick County,” sub-title “Frederick,” as enacted by Chapter 348, of the Acts of 1872, relating to the corporate organization of Frederick City, and to enact the following sections and sub-sections in lieu of the same,

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

House bill entitled an Act to repeal Section 5, of an Act entitled an Act to exempt all that portion of the waters of the Chesapeake Bay, therein described, from the effect and operations of Sections 1 and 3, of Article 98, of the Code of Public General Laws title “Wild Fowl,” passed at January Session, 1872, Chapter 54, and to re-enact the same with amendments; and also to repeal Section 21, of the same Arti-