Humphreys,

Mr. Bannon submitted the following amendment:

SEC. And be it enacted, That a bell shall be placed on each locomotive engine, and rung at the distance of at least one hundred rods from the place where the Railroad shall cross any travelled public road or street, and be kept ringing until it shall have crossed such road or street, or a steam whistle shall be attached to each locomotive engine, and be sounded at least one hundred rods from the place where the Railroad shall cross any such road or street, and shall be sounded at intervals until it shall have crossed such road or street, under the penalty of thirty dollars for the neglect of the provisions of this section, to be sued for before any Justice of the Peace of the Election District or Ward in which such neglect may happen, in ten days after such penalty was incurred, one-half thereof to go to the informer, and the other half to the County or City in which such neglect may happen; and said Company shall also be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of such neglect, and all penalties imposed by this Act may be sued for in the name of the State, and if such penalty shall be for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, then such suit may be brought before a Justice of the Peace, and may be commenced by serving a summons on any Director, Agent or Engineer of said Company.

Which was rejected by yeas and nays, as follows:
