

Garey,
Humphreys,

Stump—11.

Mr. Lee, from the Committee on Corporations, reported unfavorably,

House bill to amend Chapter 394, of the Act of 1874, relating to the Inspection of Tobacco,

Which was adopted.

Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Lee, from the Committee on Printing, submitted the following

REPORT:

To the Honorable,

The Senate and House of Delegates :

The Joint Committee on Printing respectfully submit the following as their final report to both Houses of the Legislature:

Your Committee would state that the contract entered into with George Colton to do the printing for both Houses of the General Assembly, as per report made and approved January 9th, 1878, has been faithfully carried out.

The Journals of both Houses have been found upon the files of the Members with unusual regularity. The Bills have been promptly printed, and the Documents specified in the contract have all been delivered, and in one instance, 1500 additional copies of a Document have been furnished without any demand for extra compensation. The Senate Journal has been completed to Friday March 29th, and the House Journal to same date. Of the amount of money allowed for the printing, your Committee have reserved nearly one-fourth, to be paid by the Comptroller when the Journals of both Houses are completed, and the fifteen hundred copies of the Acts, and Resolutions, as per contract and specifications, have been delivered to the Librarian.

We take pleasure in saying that the Printer has manifested a willingness and promptness to put any matter ordered by either House, whether named in the contract, and that not one dollar of extra money has been paid, or recommended to be paid, on account of printing, during the entire Session.

Your Committee, having discharged their duties to the
