

its next session, if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance with the names and residences of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith, to the Clerk of said Court, and the Trial Magistrate shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial. If after trial before the Trial Magistrate, either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of such Trial Magistrate, there shall be a right of appeal within ten days to the Circuit Court for said County.

(m) UNLAWFUL SELLING. The giving away, furnishing, delivering, handling, distributing or exchanging of any intoxicating liquor by any store-keeper or at any private residence not accepted or held as such, or the taking or soliciting of orders, or the making of agreements by any person at or within the County for the sale or delivery or future giving away of any intoxicating liquors, or any other shift or device to evade any provision of this Act, shall be held to be an unlawful selling.

(n) ENFORCEMENT. The County Commissioners of the County are hereby authorized to use any part of the fines collected for the violation of this Article for hiring detectives or secret service officers (who shall be deputized proper officers) or for paying county constables to secure the enforcement of this Article. And when there are no funds available from fines collected for the violation of this Article, such County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appropriate not more than two hundred dollars annually in Queen Anne's and Wicomico Counties and five hundred dollars ($500.00) in Worcester County, from the general revenue fund for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Article.

(o) INTENT. The intention of this section is to effectually prevent and suppress the evasions and violations of the liquor laws in the County, and for that purpose all the provisions of this section shall be liberally construed and interpreted; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall apply to shipments by means of common carriers operating under the Interstate Commerce Act where such carriers have no knowledge that said shipments contain intoxicating liquors.

(p) PENALTY. Every person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) in Worcester County, and not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) in Queen Anne's County, nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or imprisoned in the county jail or House of Correction for not less than six months nor more than one year, or be both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Justice of the Peace or the Court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any pro-
