

hending and punishing all tramps and vagrants; they may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation, and may enforce such ordinances by reasonable fines and penalties, not exceeding one hundred dollars in any one case, as may appear to them right; they may recover said fine or penalty by an action of debt, and, in addition thereto, may provide in the ordinance for the imprisonment of the offender until the fine is paid, not exceeding sixty days, such imprisonment to be in the town lockup or in the jail of Carroll County; and the Sheriff of Carroll County shall receive any person so committed.

370. Any person who shall pay his or her taxes levied as aforesaid within thirty days after the date of such levy shall be entitled to a discount of two per centum thereon, which discount shall be allowed to the treasurer in the settlement of his account with the Mayor and Common Council.

371. All taxes levied as aforesaid shall bear interest after ninety days from the date of such levy, and the bailiff shall pay over all levies placed in his hands for collection within four months after receipt of said list, and shall, every thirty days, pay over so much as may have been collected by him, and upon his failure to do so his bond shall be put in suit.

373. The bailiff shall perform such duties as they shall direct, shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose is vested with the same power and authority as any constable under the laws of the State; and it shall be his duty to inform on all persons violating the ordinances of the town or the laws of the State, and have process issued for their arrest, and to arrest without warrant all persons who, in his view, shall violate said laws and ordinances, and shall receive the same fees for arrest and execution of process issued by a justice of the peace or trial magistrate as are allowed to constables under the laws of this State.

383. All elections hereunder after the first elections herein provided for shall be held at such places as the Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville shall designate, after at least ten days' public notice of the same shall be given by them, and three judges thereof shall be designated