

County", sub-title "Seat Pleasant", said new section to be known as Section 1234-b, to follow immediately after Section 1234-a of said Article, and to read as follows:

1234-b (1) The boundaries of the Town of Seat Pleasant are hereby extended to include the following area which is added to said Town, beginning for the same at the northeasterly corner of the Town as now incorporated and bearing thence in a northeasterly direction on a continuation of the present corporate line for a distance of approximately 600 feet to a point in the center line of the stream known as the Cabin Branch, then following the meanderings of the said stream to the intersection of said stream and the right-of-way of Central Avenue, and thence in a westerly direction along the right-of-way of the said Central Avenue, up to and including the right-of-way of the East Washington Railway Company to the center line of "B" Street and the Palmer Sub-division in the Town of Seat Pleasant.

(2) All of the territory hereby annexed to the Town of Seat Pleasant shall after the date of the passage of this section be subject to all laws, ordinances and regulations of the Mayor and Common Council of Seat Pleasant. Provided, however, that the land now taxed as acreage in this extension shall be service free and tax free until the time that said acreage is subdivided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 3, 1947.

CHAPTER 93.

(House Bill 151)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's County (Flack's Edition, 1943), as enacted by Chapter 287 of the Acts of 1922, to provide for an increase in the compensation of Bailiffs of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County.
