

pairing the footways in the streets, lanes and alleys of said town, and impose a tax on any lot fronting on any street, lane or alley, for the purpose of grading, regulating, paving and repairing the footways in front thereof, or compel by fine or otherwise, the owner of any lot to pave or repair the footways in front thereof agreeably to the ordinances to be passed by them; and shall have power to open and establish new streets, lanes and alleys, and to straighten and widen old streets, lanes and alleys, and to provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred by opening, widening or straightening the streets, lanes and alleys, as aforesaid, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of the town, or upon the property of persons to be benefited thereby.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the corporate limits of the town of Templeville are hereby declared to be as follows.

Beginning for the same at a point where the westernmost boundary of Samuel Walls' property intersects the north side of highway 302 and running northerly 300 feet along said boundary, thence easterly parallel with highway 302 to intersect a line drawn perpendicular to highway 302 northerly from said highway along the easternmost boundary of the Lowman and Trice property; thence southerly reversing said line 300 feet to said highway 302; and continuing across said highway along a line drawn perpendicular to said highway southerly 200 feet, measured from the south side of said highway, thence westerly parallel with highway 302 to intersect a line extended southerly from the point of beginning and perpendicular to said highway 302, thence northerly reversing said line to the point of beginning.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the justices of the peace, if any are resident in said town, are hereby declared to be conservators of the peace of said town, and it shall be their duty to order the arrest of any person found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made by the commissioners for securing the safety of the property or lives of the inhabitants of said town, and shall have power to require any person so offending to give security to keep the peace, or in default thereof, may commit such person to the county jail for not more than forty-eight hours, and