

85G. (Consent.) Every petition for adoption shall be accompanied by written statements of consent, subscribed and sworn to before a person authorized by law to administer an oath, as specified in this section, except that the Court may in its discretion permit any petition to be filed without a necessary consent if such consent is added to the petition before the time set for hearings; but in no event shall an interlocutory or final decree of adoption be made without having the consents required by this section unless for reasons satisfactory to the Court, it shall appear proper to dispense therewith.

Consent to any proposed adoption shall be obtained from:

(a) the person to be adopted, if he is ten years of age or over; and also,

(b) both the natural parents, if married, if they are alive and have not lost their parental rights through court action or voluntary relinquishment or abandonment; or

(c) one natural parent, if the other is not alive or has lost his parental rights as mentioned in (b) above; or

(d) the mother of a child born out of wedlock, except that if the child has been legitimated according to the laws of any jurisdiction, the consent of the father shall then also be required, if he is alive and has not subsequently lost his parental rights through court action or voluntary relinquishment or abandonment; or

(e) the mother of a child born in wedlock, if the illegitimacy of the child has been established to the satisfaction of the Court, and notice, as is provided by Section 85H of this subtitle, has been given to the husband of the mother of the child; or

(f) the legal guardian of the person to be adopted, if parental rights have been transferred by court action to such guardian; or

(g) the executive head of any public or private child care or child placement institution or agency which through court action or voluntary relinquishment has been given the care, custody and control of the person to be adopted, including the right to consent to such an adoption; or

(h) the State Department of Public Welfare or its local unit within the jurisdiction of the Court, in any condition of fact not hereinbefore covered.

Any consent obtained under the provisions of this section may be revoked and cancelled at any time during the adoption proceedings prior to the entry of an interlocutory decree of
