

(D) Whenever the Commission shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made an alphabetical list of the persons charged therewith, and shall be assessed thereto the respective sums to be collected from such persons and a warrant to the Treasurer Commissioner to collect the same. The Treasurer shall, within fifteen days after the receipt of such list and warrant, render to such person named therein, an account or tax bill showing the amount due by him, said tax bill may be either served personally upon the taxpayer or mailed to such taxpayer at his last known post office address. The Treasurer Commissioner shall be collector of all taxes levied, and shall have full power to enforce payment thereof as provided by Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, by the sale of the property liable therefor and to convey a good title to any such property sold by him, provided, however, that in lieu of the remedies provided for by said Article 81, the said Treasurer of Fruitland may sue for said taxes and interest thereon in an action of debt against any taxpayer in default.

(E) The said Treasurer Commissioner shall make, at each regular meeting of said Commission, a monthly written report, which said report, shall state in itemized form all receipts and disbursements of Town money coming into his hands, which monthly report shall be signed and sworn to, as being a complete and accurate report, by said Town Treasurer before said Secretary Commissioner.

(F) That the Fruitland Commission shall examine such monthly report of said Treasurer Commissioner and, within one month after the filing of the same, the said Commission, at a regular or special meeting thereof, shall, by resolution, entered in the minute books of said Commission, approve or disapprove of such report, such monthly report shall be filed among the Town records, and the yea and nay vote of each Commissioner on the resolution approving or disapproving any such monthly report of said Treasurer Commissioner shall be entered in the minute books of said Commission and adoption by said Commission of a resolution approving any such monthly report of said Treasurer Commissioner shall be considered a certificate to the citizens of the Town of Fruitland, of each Commissioner so voting an approval of such monthly report that, after careful examination of the matter, he considers such monthly report to be complete and accurate. Provided, that nothing contained in this Act shall in any wise affect the liability to said Town
