

or said Treasurer Commissioner, and provided, further, that nothing contained in this Act shall in any wise affect the liability of the surety or sureties on the bonds of said Treasurer Commissioner.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted:

(A) That the Fruitland Commission shall have power to pass and enact such by-laws and ordinances, consistent with the law, as said Commission may deem proper for carrying into execution the provisions of this charter for the good government, public health, safety and morals of said Town; to suppress all disorderly meetings; to prohibit the use of profane language and indecent and disorderly conduct in said Town; to prevent the obstruction of its sidewalks and streets; to regulate or prevent the firing of guns, pistols or any kind of fire arms or pyrotechnics in said Town; to establish and enforce a fire prevention code; to establish and enforce reasonable regulations for the erection of buildings; to establish building lines and the grades of all streets and alleys in said Town; to license businesses and trades of every kind and nature carried on in said Town; to prevent immoderate driving through the streets of said Town in any vehicle of any character whatsoever; to prevent indecent exhibits of every kind; to preserve order and to secure persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; to provide reasonable penalties of fine or imprisonment, or both, for the violation of any of its ordinances; and to borrow money on the faith and credit of the Town of Fruitland and to secure the same by notes of the said Town, provided that the aggregate amount of all outstanding notes, shall not exceed the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

(B) The Fruitland Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to pay the reasonable value of all necessary services in connection with the preparation of this charter and the surveying of corporate limits of the said Town of Fruitland and all necessary expenses in connection with the special election held pursuant to Section Nine of this Act.

(C) When an ordinance is introduced for passage by the Commission, it shall be read but not passed at the meeting which it is introduced. As soon thereafter as conveniently may be, a statement of the substance of said ordinance shall be published by posting the same at some public place in the Town of Fruitland, or by inserting same at least once in some newspaper printed or published
