

in Wicomico County. At any regular or special meeting of the Commission held not more than sixty nor less than six days after the meeting at which such ordinance was introduced and first read, said ordinance shall be read for the second time and passed, or amended and passed, or rejected, or its consideration deferred to some specified future date by the said Commission, provided, that no ordinance shall be passed until it has been published as required by this Section at least five days. Ordinances, when passed by the Commission, shall be permanently filed by the Secretary Commissioner in a book or books kept for that purpose. The Secretary Commissioner shall deliver to the Judge of the People's Court of Wicomico County a certified copy of all ordinances for the violation of which the said Judge may impose a fine or imprisonment, or both, or other punishment. And the said Judge shall take judicial notice of all ordinances, so certified to him, and of the due preparation thereof.

(D) That the said Commissioner may annually appoint a Constable and also such additional police officers as from time to time may be necessary to preserve the peace and order of the Town, the Constable shall attend all meetings of the said Commission, shall execute all orders of the said Commission and shall perform such other duties as the Commission may assign him. The Constable shall preserve the peace and good order of the Town and he may make arrests and serve warrants and other legal process within, and one mile beyond, the corporate limits of the Town, and he is hereby invested with the same power and authority as any Constable under the laws of this State, and he shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed Constables for similar services and said fees shall be taxed as a part of the costs of any civil or criminal case out of which such warrants or legal process shall issue. The said Commission shall allow the said Constable such compensation as to them may seem right and proper. The said Constable, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall make and subscribe an oath before the Secretary Commissioner that he will truly and faithfully to the best of his ability, skill and judgment, and without favor or affection, partiality or prejudice, perform the duties of his office, and such oath shall be recorded among the minutes of the Commission.

(E) That if any person or persons shall violate any ordinance passed by the Commission of Fruitland, it is hereby made the duty of the Constable to obtain from some Justice of the Peace of Wicomico County, a war-
