

faithfully perform the duties of their office. A majority of said Judges shall have power to do all things committed unto said Judges. Any vacancy in said Judges, caused by death or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining Judges. The said Judges shall select a convenient polling place in the Town of Fruitland for the holding of the special election provided for by this Section and shall provide polling booths, ballot boxes and adequate printed ballots, bearing the names of all candidates for Commissioner. The polls shall be open from two P. M. until eight P. M. Promptly after closing the polls, the said Judges shall count the ballots and the votes and record the names of the three persons receiving the highest number and shall publicly declare the result of the said election. At the first meeting of the Fruitland Commission elected pursuant to this paragraph, the said Judges shall present a certified statement of the results of said special election, which statement shall show the number of ballots cast and the total votes received by each candidate and be recorded among the minutes of said Commission.

(B) Any person having the qualifications necessary to become a qualified voter of the Town of Fruitland, who desires to become a candidate for the office of Commissioner shall, at least ten days prior to the date of said special election, file a petition with the said Judges, which said petition shall set forth: (1) the name and address of the candidate; (2) a sworn statement that he or she possesses the necessary qualifications to become a qualified voter of the Town of Fruitland; (3) a statement that he or she desires to become a candidate.

(C) In the event that said special election results in a tie vote between two or more candidates, which will effect the result of said election, said Judges of Election shall, as soon as convenient, hold a run-off election, in which only the names of those candidates receiving an equal vote shall be placed upon the ballot, otherwise said run-off election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

SECTION 10. And be it further enacted:

(A) That all citizens of the United States, who have attained the age of twenty-one years, and who are the owners of real estate, located in the Town of Fruitland, having an assessed value of at least Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), (in the event husband and wife own real estate as tenants by the entireties, assessed at at least Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), both shall be entitled to register if
