

(O) That after the polls are closed on the night of the election, the Board of Election Supervisors shall count the votes, and the three candidates, who shall have received the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed to be elected Commissioners. In the case of a tie vote, a run-off election shall be held to choose between the tied candidates, such election to be called by the Election supervisors, at the earliest date such election can be legally held. And in counting the votes, no ballot shall be rejected because the voter casting the same shall have voted for less than three candidates.

(P) That after the ballots and votes have been counted and the result ascertained, said Board of Election Supervisors shall, within twenty-four hours, certify to the Fruitland Commission the result of such election, stating the names of the candidates and the number of votes cast for each, and shall, within the same period, post at least one copy of such certificate at the regular meeting place of said Commission. Such certificate shall be signed by each member of said Board of Election Supervisors. Provided, however, that failure on the part of said Board to make such certificate or to post copies thereof, or failure to do both of these acts, shall not invalidate such election. If said Board shall so fail to make such certificate, and post copies thereof, then it shall be the duty of the Fruitland Commission to make such certificate and post such copies thereof.

(Q) That after said Board shall have counted the ballots and votes, and ascertained the result of the election, said Board shall file with the Fruitland Commission all records and books in connection with such election.

(R) That each of the Commissioners so elected shall, on or before the third Tuesday of October of the year when he shall have been elected, qualify as such Commissioner by taking such oath of office as prescribed by Paragraph H of Section Three of this Act .

(S) That in the event any persons so elected to the office of Commissioner shall fail to qualify, or in the event of any vacancy in the office of Commissioner by death, resignation or otherwise, the remaining Commissioners shall fill such vacancy by appointment. Any persons so appointed shall possess the qualifications for Commissioners stated in this Act, and shall qualify by taking the oath of office within three days after said appointment. It shall be the duty of the remaining Commissioners to fill any
