

Maryland and Baltimore City Charter (1938 Edition), title "Baltimore City", sub-title "Probation and Suspension of Sentence", relating to the appointment of probation workers, a Chief Probation Officer and supervisory and administrative assistants.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland That Section 456 of Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland and Baltimore City Charter (1938 Edition), title "Baltimore City", sub-title "Probation and Suspension of Sentence", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

456. The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City may appoint a Chief Probation Officer, such supervisory and administrative assistants and as many probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees to carry out the provisions of this sub-title as it may deem proper; and from time to time, and without assigning any reason therefor, may revoke the appointment of any one or more of such probation officers, administrative assistants and probation workers, clerical assistants or other employees so assigned to work in the Probation Department, as well as any and all of such persons heretofore so appointed or so assigned. Such persons may be selected by examination, held by, or under the authority or direction or consent of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 25, 1947.
