

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That such bonds when issued shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and the corporate seal of the County Commissioners shall be attached thereto by the clerk of said County Commissioners and the interest coupons attached to each of said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, printed, lithographed or engraved thereon.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any bonds authorized by this Act shall be sold in the manner prescribed in Section 35 of Article 31 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, 1939 Edition, and amendments thereto.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds from the sale or sales of any of said bonds shall, after the payment of the cost of engraving or printing said bonds and other incidental costs and expenses with reference to the issuance of such bonds, be paid over to the Treasurer of Howard County and by him credited to the Board of Education of Howard County to be held in a separate account, subject to the order of said Board of Education, and to be spent only as provided in Section 1 of this Act.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That (a) The Board of Education of Howard County, acting in conjunction with a building committee, hereby formed, shall have the power to use the proceeds from the sale of any bonds issued under this Act, to provide and pay for the acquisition of sites, as aforesaid, and the erection of, and equipment for, the aforesaid schools. (b) Said building committee shall consist of Charles A. Nitsch, Norman E. Moxley and A. Robey Mullinix, and shall function in a general advisory capacity to said Board of Education of Howard County in the matters pertaining to the acquisition of sites for and the construction and equipping of said school buildings. And in addition to its advisory functions said committee shall have final authority in the approving or disapproving of any architectural or other plans prepared for the construction of said buildings. Said committee shall also have the power and authority to supervise all expenditures of the funds available for the construction and equipping of said new school buildings and no expenditure shall be contracted for, or made by, said Board of Education of Howard County without the final approval of said building committee. (c) Any balance remaining after the acquisition of the sites and the erection and equipping of
