

waters of this State any waste or polluting substance of any kind as defined for the purpose of this sub-title in violation of any duly authorized rule, regulation or order of the Commission. Any person who shall so discharge or permit to be discharged directly or indirectly any waste or polluting substance into any of the waters of this State which will cause pollution as defined herein shall be deemed to violate the provisions of this sub-title.

Every person the Commission has reason to believe is causing or is about to be causing pollution shall furnish to the Commission all pertinent information required by it in the discharge of its duties under this sub-title.

Whenever, in the opinion of the Commission, any person shall violate or attempt to violate the provisions of this sub-title, or fails to control the pollutant content or waste discharge into any of the waters of the State, the Commission shall notify the alleged offender of such determination by the Commission. Within thirty days from the receipt of notice of such determination, such person shall file with the Commission a full report showing what steps have been and are being taken to control such waste or pollution. Within 90 days from the receipt of such report filed with the Commission, the Commission shall issue such orders as in its opinion shall be deemed necessary.

Any agent, authorized by the Commission to represent the Commission, shall have the authority to enforce the provisions of this sub-title and may make complaint against any person violating the same. After service of a written notice, setting forth specifically any violation of this sub-title, any person who shall fail to file the report required by this sub-title and who is thereafter found to be continuing such violation may be prosecuted under this sub-title; provided, however, that pending the hearing provided for in this sub-title, no complaint shall be made until the termination thereof.

34. Whenever any person shall feel himself aggrieved by any rule, regulation or order of the Commission, he shall have a right to file a sworn petition with the Commission setting forth the grounds and reasons for his complaint and asking for a hearing of the matter involved. The Commission shall thereupon fix the time and place for such hearing and shall notify the petitioner thereof. At such hearing, the petitioner and any other interested parties may appear, present witnesses and submit evidence. The chairman of the Commission or any member thereof shall have the power to administer oaths to all witnesses who appear before said Commission at such hearings. For the purpose of all hearings and inquiries which they are authorized to make or
