

accordance with the rules of the State Department of Public Welfare, as well as work relief and services to families and individuals, and the care of neglected, dependent and delinquent children, which care shall include the rendering of probation service to juvenile courts or other courts having jurisdiction over minors.

(b) Administrative costs of the County Welfare Boards for the purpose of this section shall be paid out of funds derived from local sources or out of allotments from State or Federal funds, or any of them, as the State Department of Public Welfare may prescribe. The County Commissioners of each county and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby empowered and directed to levy for or appropriate such funds, from time to time, as may be necessary for this purpose.

13. (a) Each County Welfare Board shall consist of seven persons, one of whom shall be a County Commissioner of the county in which such Board is to function. Said County Commissioner shall be an ex-officio member of the Board, and each year the Board of County Commissioners shall designate which of its members shall so serve. All members of the County Boards shall serve without pay, except that they may receive reimbursement for their expenses incurred in attending meetings.

(b) The members of each County Board, except the County Commissioner serving thereon, shall be appointed for six-year terms, to expire on May 31st of the respective years of expiration, or until their successors are appointed. Upon the expiration of a six-year term, the appointee shall be ineligible for re-appointment to a second term immediately succeeding the first. Any vacancy occurring for any reason during a term shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(c) The members of each County Welfare Board, other than the County Commissioner serving thereon, shall be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners from a list submitted by the State Department of Public Welfare as hereinafter provided, after approval by the State Board. In case of a vacancy occurring in the membership of any County Board by reason of expiration of the term or otherwise, the Board of County Commissioners of the county concerned shall forthwith proceed to appoint the requisite member or members from a list to be submitted by the State Department of Public Welfare, after consultation with the Board of County Commissioners of the county concerned, which list shall contain twice the
