game (waterfowl and fur-bearing animals excepted) ; or to export or ship any game out from the limits of one county to another or to any City of this State except a licensed hunter, either resident or non-resident may take out with him as personal baggage in the open two days' bag limit as provided by law. It shall be unlawful for any person to have more than two days' bag limit of any species in possession and it shall be unlawful for any express company or any common carrier to knowingly accept any such game (waterfowl and fur-bearing animals excepted), for shipment without any county, city or town of the State. Any person desiring to ship out of this State any waterfowl shall ship same out in the open tied by head or feet and tagged accordingly, or in a container slatted so the birds are visible.

(b) A licensed hunter who has procured a hunter's license in Maryland for the year in which he desires to take out, and who has hunted in State and killed game may take out as personal baggage in the open two days' bag limit as provided by law but he must produce his hunting license as herein provided upon request of any person.

(c) Any person desiring to ship or take out of State any waterfowl killed by him shall not ship or take out more than two days' bag limit in any one calendar week.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved March 15, 1947.

CHAPTER 120.

(House Bill 38)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 81 and 83 of Article 99 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1943 Supplement), title "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish," sub-titles "State Game Refuges and Hunting Grounds," and "Elk and Deer," changing the sub-title "Elk and Deer" to "Deer", eliminating the word "elk" from Section 83, making it unlawful to trespass on game and fish refuges and clarifying the provisions of said sections.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 81 and 83 of Article 99 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1943 Supplement), title "Birds,
