

Game and Inland Water Fish," sub-title "State Game Refuges and Hunting Grounds," and "Elk and Deer," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

81. (Entry Upon Refuges.) No person shall trespass in any manner on any State Game or Fish Refuge without the consent of the Game Warden or person in charge of said lands or waters. It shall be unlawful to allow any dog, domestic stock or poultry to enter upon or trespass in any manner upon any State-owned game or fish refuge. Persons regularly residing on lands included within any refuge may be granted a special written permit by the Game Warden which may be revoked at any time to have traps, dogs, or guns in possession on such Refuge so long as they are not used in hunting or trapping for game unless said hunting or trapping is done under special permit from the Game Warden for propagating purposes. Where any portion of a State Game Refuge is used for a State Park entry by any person within the refuge area for recreational pursuits shall not be restricted on the portion of said territory used as a State Park so long as such persons do not carry fire-arms or traps or do not permit dogs to disturb or chase game.

The Game Warden by written permission may grant to responsible persons the right to hunt or trap for vermin and to use dogs and guns in connection therewith on State Game Refuges or may grant permission to trap birds or game animals which, when so trapped, shall be used for propagation purposes.

DEER

83. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, pursue, kill or have in possession any female or fawn of the deer family within the State of Maryland at any time; however, it shall be lawful to hunt, pursue, or kill any male deer with two or more points to one antler during any open season as provided by law. No person shall kill or attempt to kill a second deer in any one season or have in possession more than one male deer killed in this State during any one year.

Every person killing a deer found in a wild state shall, within twenty-four hours report said kill to a salaried Deputy Game Warden and write the State Game Warden giving name, address, hunter's license number, county, and location where said deer was killed.

(b) It shall be unlawful to hunt in any manner any deer except through the use of a gun propelling one all-lead or lead-
