

shall state, among other things: (1) the name and address of the applicant, (2) the reason for desiring the licensee to possess explosives, (3) his citizenship, if the applicant is an individual, (4) if the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship, and (5) if the applicant is an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship. The Commissioner shall issue the license applied for without charge unless he finds that either the applicant, or the officers, agents or employees of the applicant, is not sufficiently experienced in the handling of explosives, lacks suitable facilities therefor, has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or is disloyal to the United States; provided, however, that if the explosives are to be used for agricultural purposes, or other personal use infrequently on the premises of the possessor, the license shall not be withheld either on the grounds of inexperience or lack of suitable facilities.

250. (Revocation; Term of License; Fees.) (a) Any license issued hereunder may be revoked by the official issuing the same on any ground specified herein as a ground for denying an application for such license.

(b) All licenses issued hereunder shall expire on the last day of each calendar year unless sooner revoked.

(c) Each application for a license hereunder shall be accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed, which fee shall be returned in the event such application is denied. The license fee shall be as follows:

Manufacturer's license, Ten Dollars;

Dealer's license, Five Dollars.

The fees for manufacturers' and dealers' licenses shall be paid over by the Commissioner to the State Treasury.

251. (Appeals.) The action of the Commissioner in revoking or refusing to grant a license for the manufacture, sale or possession of explosives shall be evidenced by a written notice given to the license-holder or applicant as the case may be. Such notice shall set forth the ground or grounds on which the action of the Commissioner is based and shall be deemed to have been given if delivered or mailed to the license-holder or applicant at the address given in the license of application for license. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by the action of the Commissioner in refusing to grant him a license or in revoking a license previously granted to him, may not later than the thirtieth day after the day of delivery or
