

Court Number 2 of Baltimore City wherein the person resides or has his principal place of business, to enjoin and restrain such person from engaging in such method, act or practice. The Court shall have jurisdiction of the proceedings and shall have power to make and enter appropriate orders in connection therewith and to issue such writs as are ancillary to its jurisdiction or are necessary in its judgment to prevent injury to the public pendente lite. To the extent that the order of the Commissioner is affirmed, the Court shall thereupon issue its order commanding obedience to the terms of such order of the Commissioner.

(c) A transcript of the proceedings before the Commissioner including all evidence taken and the report and findings shall be filed with such petition. If either party shall apply to the Court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shall show, to the satisfaction of the Court, that such additional evidence is material and there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence in the proceedings before the Commissioner, the Court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the Commissioner and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem proper. The Commissioner may modify his findings of fact or make new findings by reason of the additional evidence so taken, and he shall file such modified or new findings with the return of such additional evidence.

(d) If the Court finds that the method of competition complained of is unfair or that the act or practice complained of is unfair or deceptive, that the proceeding by the Commissioner with respect thereto is to the interest of the public and that the findings of the Commissioner are supported by the substantial weight of the evidence, it shall issue its order enjoining and restraining the continuance of such method of competition, act or practice.

267. (Judicial Review by Intervenor.) If the report of the Commissioner does not charge a violation of this Act, then any-intervenor in the proceedings may within twenty (20) days after the service of such report, cause a petition or notice of appeal to be filed in the Circuit Court of the county or in the Circuit Court or Circuit Court Number 2 of Baltimore City wherein the person engaged in such method of competition, act or practice resides or has his principal place of business, for a review of such report. Upon such review, the Court shall have authority to issue appropriate orders and decrees in connection therewith, including, if the Court finds that it is to the interest of the public, orders enjoining and
