4. The Judges of Election appointed as hereinafter provided in Section 7 shall give notice that the election will be held and the place and time thereof by hand-bills posted in not less than five public places in said town at least twenty days before the date thereof. The said election shall be held on the first Monday of July, 1947, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient. At the said election all persons qualified, as prescribed in Section 3 of this sub-title, shall be entitled to vote for Candidates for Commissioners having the necessary qualifications as therein prescribed. Such Judges of Election shall, before opening the polls, make oath before some Notary Public in and for Wicomico County to permit every qualified voter to vote, and none other, and otherwise truly and faithfully to perform the duties of their office. A majority of said Judges shall have power to do all things committed unto said Judges. Any vacancy in said Judges, caused by death or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining Judges.

5. The Commissioners shall within ten days after any election for Commissioners meet and organize by choosing one of their number to be President. Any vacancies occurring in the office of Commissioners, either by death, removal from the town, resignation, disqualification, or refusal to act as Commissioner, shall be filled by the remaining Commissioners by selecting some citizen of the said town, who possesses the required qualifications of a Commissioner. Such Commissioner so selected shall hold office for the unexpired term for which he shall be selected, as aforesaid, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

7. The said Commissioners shall at least twenty days prior to the holding of any election provided in Section 3 of this sub-title, give notice that such election will be held and the time and place thereof, by hand-bills posted in at least five public places in the said town, and shall appoint within said time three Judges of Election. Before opening the polls such Judges of Election shall make oath before some Notary Public of Wicomico County to permit every qualified voter of said town to vote, and none other, and to truly and faithfully perform the duties of their office. The hours for such election shall be between four o'clock and eight o'clock past noon. Voting may be held by written or printed ballots. No registration shall be required to entitle any quali-
