

ment of all damages to persons or property caused by reason of the discharge of fireworks mentioned in said permit. The said bond or policy shall be payable to the State and may be enforced by any person suffering damage as aforesaid, by suit in the name of the State to his own use. If claims under any bond or policy required under this sub-title are established to an amount greater than the penal sum of the bond, or amount of the policy, such claims shall be payable pro rata to the amount of the penal sum of the bond or amount of the policy and executions shall issue accordingly. The Insurance Commissioner is hereby authorized and directed to establish such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this sub-title. He is hereby authorized to deputize the chief or other members of the fire department serving in any locality, or some other suitable official, to act as his deputy for the purpose of making inspections and investigations and receiving applications for permits, and may provide for the deposit with the application of a reasonable fee to cover expenses incurred in investigation thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved March 15, 1947.

CHAPTER 139.

(House Bill 232)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 10 of Article 13 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes", sub-title "Legal Holidays", providing that when March 25th, known as "Maryland Day", occurs on Sunday, the Monday following shall be deemed and treated as a public holiday.

WHEREAS, apparently through an oversight or inadvertence, no provision was made in Section 10 of Article 13 to provide that when Maryland Day occurs on Sunday, the following Monday shall be deemed and treated as a public holiday, as in the case of other holidays; now therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 10 of Article 13 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes", sub-title "Legal Holidays", be and it is
