

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 165 of Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Charles County", sub-title "La Plata", be and it is hereby repealed, and that a new Section 165 be and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to read as follows:

165. The corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the centre of the bridge across Clark Run in the State Road leading from La Plata to Dentsville; running thence with the North side of the said State Road in a westerly direction a distance of 320 feet to a stake marking the beginning of the fourth course of the original survey of the town of La Plata; thence with the said fourth course N 22½° W 1947 feet to a stone; running still with the original outline survey N 83½° W until this line intersects the east right of way line of the P. B. and W. Railroad; thence with the east right of way line of the said Railroad in a northerly direction a distance of 600 feet more or less; then leaving said Railroad and running in a northwesterly direction to a point of intersection of the old State Road leading from La Plata to Washington and the old county road known as "May Day Road" or "The Cox Mill Road"; thence in a westerly direction following the centre line of the said old county road to the northwest corner of Rudolph Garner's land; thence in a southerly direction along the said Garner line until it intersects the line of the Posey land; thence in a westerly direction along the north boundary line of the Posey and Clark land to the west side of a private roadway leading to the lands of George Johnson et al.; thence southerly in a straight line until this line intersects the run or stream directly in back of Sacred Heart School; thence with said stream in a westerly direction until it intersects the private roadway leading to the home of Hal Barnes; thence in a southerly direction to a large Black Walnut Tree standing about 20 feet north of a private cemetery on the land of James Wills; thence in a southeasterly direction to the southwest corner of Frank Simms' property; thence with the south boundary line of said Simms' property running in an easterly direction to the old State Road leading from La Plata to Bel Alton; thence with the west side of said State Road in a northerly direction to a point directly opposite the southwest corner of Vernon Padgett's property; thence leaving said State Road and running in an easterly direction to the point of intersection of this line and the stream known as Clark Run; running thence up and with the run in a northerly direction as it meanders to the point of beginning.