

If, during the period for which any such plates are issued, there should be any change in the factual information furnished by such application for registration, such change shall be fully, truly and promptly communicated to the Department in writing by the applicant, under oath, upon forms provided by the Department for that purpose.

It shall be the duty of the Department to refuse to issue any such plates to any applicant not properly entitled thereto, and it shall also be the duty of the Department to revoke, recall and repossess all such plates when the holder thereof shall cease to be entitled thereto.

55.

(e) Except when used by a purchaser, or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this section, dealer registration plates and used car dealer registration plates shall not be used on any motor vehicles while such vehicle is being used in connection with any business other than the business of the registrant as set forth in his application for registration; nor shall the same be used after such registrant shall have been notified by the Department that such registration plates are forfeited because of violation of the provisions of this section.

(f) New motor vehicles owned by and in the possession of registered dealers shall be exempt from the registration prescribed by Section 21 of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved May 7, 1947.
