

any airport upon which the airman shall land, or upon the reasonable request of any prospective passenger. Where a certificate, permit or license is required by the United States for an aircraft, it shall be carried in the aircraft at all times while the aircraft is operating in the State, shall be conspicuously posted in the aircraft where it may be readily seen by passengers or inspectors, and shall be presented for inspection upon the demand of any peace officer, or any other officer of the State or of a municipality or member, official or employee of the Commission authorized pursuant to Section 99 of this Act to enforce the aeronautics laws, or any official, manager or person in charge of any airport upon which the aircraft shall land.

94. (Registration of Pilots and Aircraft; Requisites; Exemptions.)

(a) (Pilot Registration; Fees.) Subject to the limitations of subsections (c) and (d) of this Section, the Commission is authorized to require that every individual who pilots an aircraft within this State shall register with the Commission and shall give notification of change of address. The Commission may charge for such registration, a fee not exceeding one dollar.

(b) (Aircraft Registration; Fees.) Subject to the limitations of subsections (c) and (d) of this Section, the Commission is authorized to require that every aircraft operating within this State shall be registered with the Commission for each year in which the aircraft is operated within the State. The Commission may charge for each such registration, and for each annual renewal thereof, a fee not exceeding one dollar.

(c) (Requirements for Registration, Issuance of Certificates.) Possession of the appropriate effective federal certificate, permit, rating or license relating to competency of the pilot or ownership and airworthiness of the aircraft, as the case may be, and payment of the fee duly required pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be the only requisites for registration of a pilot or an aircraft under this Section. Registration shall be effected by filing with the Commission a written statement containing the information reasonably required by the Commission for such purpose. It shall not be necessary for the registrant to provide the Commission with originals or copies of federal certificates, permits, ratings or licenses. The Commission may issue certificates of registration, or such other evidences of registration or payment of fees as it may
