

facilities of the agencies of the United States as fully as may be practicable in the administration and enforcement of this Act. The Commission shall furnish to the agencies of the United States its cooperation, services, records and facilities, in so far as may be practicable.

(c) (Accident Reporting.) The Commission shall report to the appropriate agency of the United States all accidents in aeronautics in this State of which it is informed, and shall in so far as is practicable preserve, protect and prevent the removal of the component parts of any aircraft involved in an accident being investigated by it until the federal agency institutes an investigation.

99. (Enforcement of Aeronautics Laws.)

(a) (Enforcement Officers.) It shall be the duty of the Commission, its members, the Director, officers and employees of the Commission, and every State and municipal officer charged with the enforcement of State and municipal laws, to enforce and assist in the enforcement of this Act and of all rules, regulations and orders issued pursuant thereto and of all other laws of this State relating to aeronautics.

(b) (Court Aid.) The Commission is authorized, in the name of the State to enforce the provisions of this Act and the rules, regulations and orders issued pursuant thereto by injunction or other legal process in the courts of this State.

100. (Commission Orders, Notice and Opportunity for Hearings, Judicial Review.) Every order of the Commission requiring performance of certain acts or compliance with certain requirements and any denial or revocation of an approval, certificate or license shall set forth the reasons and shall state the acts to be done or requirements to be met before approval by the Commission will be given or the approval, license or certificate granted or restored or the order modified or changed. Orders issued by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be served upon the persons affected either by registered mail or in person. In every case where notice and opportunity for hearing are required under the provisions of this Act, the order of the Commission shall, on not less than 21 days' notice, specify a time when and place where the person affected may be heard, or the time within which he may request hearing, and such order shall become effective upon the expiration of the time for exercising such opportunity
