

for hearing, unless a hearing is held or requested within the time provided, in which case the order shall be suspended until the Commission shall affirm, disaffirm or modify such order after hearing held or default by the person affected. All hearings on such orders shall be conducted at or near the principal office of the Commission. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Commission or by the grant, denial or revocation of any approval, license or certificate, as provided in this Act, may have the action of the Commission reviewed by the Circuit Court for any County or the Circuit Court or Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City. Such appeal shall be limited to questions of law only, and shall be taken within thirty (30) days from the date of the final order of the Commission complained of, by petition setting forth the question or questions desired to be reviewed. Notice of such appeals shall be served on all parties directly in interest. Before the trial of such action, on appeal, a transcript, duly certified by the Director of the Commission, of all papers and proceedings, including evidence in the case before the Commission, except such as are omitted by stipulation in writing of the parties to such action, shall be filed by the Commission with the Clerk of the court to which the appeal has been taken. There shall be a further right of appeal to the Court of Appeals from any decision of the Circuit Court for the Counties or the Circuit Court or Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City, as the case may be. Such appeals must be taken within thirty (30) days of the final judgment or determination of the lower court, and the Court of Appeals shall immediately hear and determine such appeal.

101. (Penalties - General, Special.)

(a) (General.) Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act, unless otherwise specified herein, and any person violating any of the rules, regulations or orders issued pursuant to this Act, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment of not more than 90 days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) (Special.) For any violation of Section 92 of this Act, in addition to, or in lieu of, the penalties provided by subsection (a) of this Section, or as a condition to the suspension of a sentence which may be imposed pursuant thereto, the court in its discretion may prohibit the violator from operating an aircraft within the State for such period as it may determine but not to exceed one year. Violation of the duly imposed prohibition of the court may
