

(B) The Council shall elect one from among their membership to be Chairman, whose special duties shall be to preside at meetings of the Council and to countersign checks properly issued by the Secretary-Treasurer. The Council shall meet not less than once each month at times and places of its choosing to transact such business as may properly come before it, and the Secretary-Treasurer shall keep accurate minutes of all such meetings. Three members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; provided, however, that all actions involving the election of a Chairman, the certifying of tax rates, expenditure of community funds, or the levying of special assessments on property for assessable improvements shall require the affirmative vote of at least three members of the Council.

(C) The Secretary-Treasurer shall be the custodian of all the records, correspondence and other documents and property of Chevy Chase View and shall attend the meetings of the Council to keep the minutes, but shall not vote as a member of the Council. He shall prepare, sign and issue correspondence on official matters as directed by the Council, and otherwise perform the usual duties of a secretary. He shall be the custodian of all funds which are received to the credit of Chevy Chase View, and shall deposit all such funds in such bank as may be approved by the Council. He shall pay out such funds only in accordance with this Act, as instructed by the Council, by check duly signed by him as Secretary-Treasurer and countersigned by the Chairman of the Council.

(D) The Secretary-Treasurer shall give bond, with surety approved by the Council in the penal sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), or such higher amount as may be fixed by the Council, conditioned upon the faithful accounting by him for all moneys which shall come into his hands as such Secretary-Treasurer and the payment over to his successor of all such moneys as remain in his hands upon the termination of his tenure of office.

119. (A) Members of the Citizen's Committee of Chevy Chase View and the Secretary-Treasurer of Chevy Chase View holding office under the provisions of Chapter 419 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1931, at the time of the enactment of this Act shall be, and hereby are, constituted as the initial membership of the Council and as Secretary-Treasurer, respectively, as provided for in this Act, to serve to the end of their present terms, and until their successors are elected and duly qualified as hereinafter provided. All records, correspondence and other documents and property of the Citizen's Committee are hereby transferred to
