

coupon or other evidence thereof, and the interest payable thereon, shall be and remain exempt from State, County and municipal taxation.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall appoint a committee to be known as the Kent County Building Committee and which shall consist of such representative citizens as the Commissioners shall determine. The Committee shall have full control and authority over the building and improvement program and shall have the power and authority to direct the County Commissioners to proceed to borrow money as is herein authorized in such amounts and at such times as the Committee deems necessary.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds derived from said loan shall be placed in a special fund by the County Treasurer, and shall be paid out by him only on warrants from the County Commissioners, which warrants shall be issued only upon proper vouchers presented by the Kent County Building Committee for the erection and equipment of new school buildings and for additions to and equipment of existing school buildings in said County.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said notes and/or bonds and for redeeming said notes and/or bonds as they mature, the County Commissioners of Kent County shall annually levy a tax upon the assessable property of said County sufficient to pay the annual interest on said notes and/or bonds and to redeem said notes and/or bonds as they become due until all of said notes and/or bonds shall mature and be redeemed. The taxes so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected in said county.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
