

and credit of the county a sum of money not to exceed Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000.00) from such banks, trust companies or other source as they may elect, and to issue negotiable promissory notes to secure the same. Said notes shall bear interest not to exceed three per cent. (3%) and may be renewed from time to time, but shall be retired within ten (10) years from the date of the original loan. The money so borrowed shall be used for the purpose of paying off outstanding certificates of indebtedness issued for the general expenses of the county. The County Commissioners shall include in the budget and levy from year to year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal of such loan.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 2, 1947.

CHAPTER 309.

(House Bill 621)

AN ACT to authorize and empower The Commissioners of Cambridge, to borrow a sum of money not exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) and to evidence said borrowing by the issuance to the lender of its general obligation coupon bonds or its promissory note, payable as to principal and interest from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes, levied without limitation as to rate or amount on all property in said municipality, and to use the money so borrowed in clearing Cambridge Harbor as required by the War Department in the pending deepening project; and for its share in a proposed municipal airport as described in an Act of Congress of the United States, entitled "Federal Airport Act", which was approved May 13, 1946; further empowering the said The Commissioners of Cambridge to operate and maintain an airport either within or without the city limits or partly in and partly out of the city limits, in cooperation with The Commissioners for Dorchester County, or without their cooperation.
