

municipal election as well as at any general election to be held in Baltimore City.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of sale of the certificates of indebtedness hereby authorized to be issued, not exceeding the part value thereof, shall be used for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, installation, erection, extension, enlargement, renovation or modernization of, and additions to, public park buildings, structures, facilities or utilities.

No part of the proceeds of sale of the said certificates of indebtedness shall be used for or in connection with the establishment, acquisition or construction of any new stadium or any facility appurtenant thereto, or for or in connection with reconstructing, enlarging, extending, improving, renovating, modernizing or adding to the existing Baltimore Stadium located in Venable Park or any facility appurtenant thereto.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may, by ordinance or ordinances, authorize the issuance of said certificates of indebtedness in series maturing at stated periods, and may make payable annually a portion of the principal of said certificates of indebtedness, and any portion or all of said certificates of indebtedness may or may not be registered, and said certificates of indebtedness, or any portion thereof, may or may not have interest coupons attached, all as may be provided by or under the authority of said ordinance or ordinances, and said certificates of indebtedness, when issued, shall bear interest at such rate or rates as may be provided by or under the authority of said ordinance or ordinances. If said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series maturing at stated periods, and a portion of the principal is made payable annually, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall annually raise by taxation the amount of money required to meet the interest and the portion of the principal payable in each year. If said certificates of indebtedness are not issued in series, any premiums realized above the par value of the whole amount of said certificates of indebtedness shall constitute a part of the sinking fund created for the purpose of paying the loan herein authorized, and if said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series, the net premiums resulting from sale of the entire loan shall be placed to the credit of any existing sinking funds established for the payment of any loans of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.
