

vice; three thousand eight hundred dollars ($3,800) per year for the eighth year of teaching and supervising service; three thousand nine hundred dollars ($3,900) per year for the ninth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand dollars ($4,000) per year for the tenth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand one hundred dollars ($4,100) per year for the eleventh year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand two hundred dollars ($4,200) per year for the twelfth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand three hundred dollars ($4,300) per year for the thirteenth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand four hundred dollars ($4,400) per year for the fourteenth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) per year for the fifteenth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) per year for the sixteenth year of teaching and supervising service; four thousand seven hundred dollars ($4,700) per year for the seventeenth and each succeeding year of service thereafter, provided that supervising teachers with twelve years or less teaching and supervising experience prior to September 1, 1947, shall receive the salary in the new schedule corresponding with their years of experience, and supervising teachers having more than twelve years' teaching and supervising experience prior to September 1, 1947, shall be placed on the new schedule corresponding with the twelfth year of experience; each subsequent year thereafter they shall receive one increment on the salary schedule.

A supervising teacher having completed at least one year of graduate work, meeting the requirements for the appropriate supervising teacher's certificate, shall receive $200 per year more than the foregoing schedule for a supervising teacher holding a Bachelor's Degree requires.

With the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools, county boards of education may employ helping teachers and supervising teachers without Degrees, under the conditions for supervising teachers prescribed in this section at an annual salary of six hundred dollars ($600) less than that paid to supervising teachers with degrees. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the County Board of Education two-thirds of the annual salaries of the supervising teachers or helping teachers required by this section. County Boards of Education may at their discretion, pay to a county supervising or helping teacher an annual salary in excess of the schedule provided in this section, but the State shall not share in the part-payment of this excess. County Boards of Education are free to employ as many additional supervising teachers or helping teachers as in their judgment are necessary