

the Mayor, upon the recommendation of the Town Council, shall appoint a qualified person to fill said vacancy.

43C. (Registration Days.) The third Monday and the third Friday in the month of April preceding the biennial election are hereby designated as days of registration, and the supervisors of election shall give public notice, at least ten days prior to said third Monday by not less than ten printed or written notices posted at conspicuous places in each ward, stating the place and the hours during which they will sit for the purpose of registering qualified voters, provided said supervisors shall sit not less than six hours on each of said days, to be arranged by them, to best suit the public convenience.

43D. (Registration Books.) Each of said deputy supervisors shall be furnished by the Town Council, prior to the first registration under this sub-title, with a well-bound registration book in which book there shall be provided spaces for the name of each person registering in the particular deputy supervisor's ward, his age, color, actual place of residence and date of registration, and a space where each person registering shall sign his or her name, or in which his or her mark shall be made if he or she is unable to write. Said books shall be returned to the Town Council within three days after each election, and such books shall thereupon become the official registration books of the town and shall be delivered to the deputy supervisors of the election the day preceding the next registration. The deputy supervisors, acting as registration officials, shall swear each applicant for registration, and if upon the examination of such applicant, it appears to both of them that such applicant is a qualified voter, in accordance with Section 43A hereof, they shall each register his name in said registration books; and all persons so registered shall be entitled to vote at town elections so long as the names appear upon such registration books.

43E. (Challenging Registration.) The deputy supervisors of election, acting as registration officials, for the ward involved, on the first of said registration days, whenever an affidavit is made before them by a registered voter of said town, that any name upon said books is not entitled to be thereupon, shall make note of said name and shall place in the United States mail, on said first registration day, addressed to said voter at the place of residence set out in said registration books, postage prepaid, a notice that his name has been noted for striking off
