

for the appointment of a receiver of the project, whether or not all bonds shall have been declared due and payable and whether or not such holder or trustee is seeking or has sought to enforce any other right or to exercise any other remedy in connection with such bonds, and upon such application the court may appoint such receiver.

Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, any such receiver shall have no power to sell, assign, mortgage or otherwise dispose of said bridge or of any assets of whatever kind or character belonging to and useful for the bridge, and the authority of any such receiver shall be limited to the operation and maintenance of the bridge in receivership and no court shall have jurisdiction to enter any order or decree requiring or permitting such receiver to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any such assets.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the County is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds then outstanding and issued under the provisions hereof. The issuance of such revenue refunding bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, and the duties of the County in respect to the same, shall be governed by the foregoing provisions hereof in so far as the same may be applicable; provided, however, that no revenue refunding bonds shall be issued except in exchange for revenue bonds to be refunded thereby or in the amount necessary to provide for the payment of matured revenue bonds or bonds maturing or redeemable within six months or unmatured revenue bonds which can be acquired for retirement, including any redemption premium and accrued interest thereon.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That upon the final payment of all revenue bonds or revenue refunding bonds issued with respect to the bridge, the authority of the County to charge for the use thereof shall cease and determine.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That so long as the County shall retain title to the bridge, such bridge and the revenues derived therefrom shall be and remain exempt from all taxation of any kind and nature whatsoever by this State or by any county or municipality of this State.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the county shall be without power or authority to alien, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the bridge, except as salvage, unless provisions for such sale, lease or disposition shall be made by resolution and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified
