

authorized for the construction or improvement and equipment of the specific school or schools for which such money is appropriated, then and in such case the balance in the hands of the Board of Education of Prince George's County for such specific appropriations may, with the approval of the Board of County Commissioners, be applied to the erection of new buildings, the addition to or the alteration of existing school buildings, the purchase of sites, and the equipment of such new additions or alterations at other places in said County, where in the discretion of the Board of Education of Prince George's County, the same may be needed. The Board of Education of Prince George's County is hereby given full power and authority to do all things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, even though the same may not be specifically mentioned herein or in the general school laws of the State.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That in case the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall determine after the sale of said bonds, that it is inadvisable to construct one or more of the school buildings or additions to schools named in the original resolution, but may consider it advisable to spend the amounts specifically set out for said school or schools, or any portion thereof, elsewhere in the construction and equipment of school buildings or additions to school buildings at other places in the County, including the purchase of land if necessary, then and in that event, it may by resolution request the Board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County to substitute for the specific purposes for which the said bonds were sold, or any of them, the construction of such new schools, or such additions to schools as said Board of Education may consider advisable and if the Board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County concur in such changes, or any of them, they shall by a resolution approve the same, and thereupon such new items shall be substituted for the items named in the original resolutions, which the said Boards desire to abandon, and the Board of Education shall proceed with these new items in the same manner and with the same powers and restrictions as if the same had been mentioned in the original resolutions.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1947.

Approved April 16, 1947.
