

Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), as said sections were enacted by Chapter 185 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its January Session in the year 1939, and as Section 174C was amended by Chapter 612 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its January Session in the year 1943, shall limit or affect in any way the powers hereby conferred, and the duties and obligations hereby conferred and imposed upon the Board of Education of Anne Arundel County and the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County are hereby exempted from the provisions of said sections to the extent that there may be, or may appear to be, any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of said sections and the provisions of this Act, and none of the provisions of said sections shall be construed as a limitation upon the powers hereby conferred; provided, however, that any funds heretofore or hereafter budgeted for school construction pursuant to the requirements of Section 174C(a) (3) or pursuant to Section 174C(c) of said Article 2 of the Code of Public Local Laws may be applied by the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County on account of the payment of the principal and interest of any notes issued hereunder; and provided further that, except for the application of such funds, the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall in each fiscal year, pursuant to Section 174C(a)(1), budget an amount sufficient to meet the debt service requirements of the notes hereby authorized, as above provided.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized hereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing. This Act being necessary for the welfare of the inhabitants of Anne Arundel County, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes hereof. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16, 1947.
