

1943 Supplement), title "Time—Standard", said new section to be known as Section 3, to follow immediately after Section 2 of said Article, and to read as follows:

3. Whenever any county, city, town or other political sub-division of this State shall have adopted daylight saving time, or any other variation from the standard time specified in this Article, such time shall, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article, be effective in such county, city, town or other political sub-division during the period provided for in the ordinance or resolution establishing and adopting such daylight saving time or other time, and all courts, public offices, and legal and official proceedings in such county, city, town or other political sub-division shall conform to and be regulated thereby. Whenever any public general or public local law or ordinance shall prescribe and fix any time for the opening or closing of offices, filing of papers of any kind, or of any other activity, or shall prescribe the opening and/or closing hours of any business or business activities, such hours shall conform to the time so adopted by any county, city, town or other political sub-division of this State, within such county, city, town or other political sub-division, to the same extent as if such time had been specified in state law or ordinance, provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply to the sale of alcoholic beverages in Anne Arundel, Carroll and Washington Counties.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws and ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16, 1947.
