

Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Anne Arundel County", sub-title "Annapolis", as said section was amended by Chapter 567 of the Acts of 1943, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

26A. The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, shall have power and authority whenever in their judgment the public convenience may require, to cause sidewalks to be regraded, repaved, repaired or otherwise improved and to cut grass, trees and weeds bordering said sidewalks, and to collect the cost thereof from the person or persons, owning the property fronting on any said sidewalk, and whenever the person or persons owning the property fronting on any such sidewalks shall fail or refuse to have such sidewalks regraded, repaved or repaired or to have the grass, trees and weeds bordering said sidewalks cut after ten days' written notice given by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, the said Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis may do said work as aforesaid and may assess the cost of all such work or any part thereof against the abutting property and may provide that the same may be and become a lien against such property and the City Commissioner after causing the work to be done in a suitable manner shall report the cost thereof to the City Treasurer and the said City Treasurer shall add the said cost to the tax bill for the said year and the said sum shall be collected as other city taxes. Notice provided for in this section may be served on the owner or tacked upon the property.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 16, 1947.

CHAPTER 464.

(House Bill 790)

AN ACT to repeal Section 379 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County", sub-title "Health and Sanitation".

WHEREAS, the aforesaid Section 379 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), was originally enacted as part of an Act, the other provisions of which have been repealed, making said section meaningless, therefore
