

of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Clerks of Courts", sub-title "Clerk of the Court of Appeals", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

54. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall have the custody of all the records and papers in the office of the late Court of Appeals, of the former Court of Appeals, and of the General Court. He shall receive such compensation as shall be provided in the State Budget. Said clerk may appoint, subject to the approval of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, such deputy clerks as the requirements of his office shall necessitate, who shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the said judges and clerk, and shall receive such compensation as shall be provided in the State Budget. The said Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall render an account, as now prescribed by law, of all fees, emoluments and receipts of his said office, and shall pay the same to the Treasurer of the State, as now required by law. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall provide his office with such record books, dockets, etc., as may be suitable and necessary. The record of causes pending in said court shall be printed under the direction of said clerk, and the briefs of counsel may be printed in like manner or may be printed by said counsel, at their option, and in every cause the actual cost of printing of said records and briefs, at current rates, and no more, shall be taxed in said causes as the cost of making copies of said records and briefs. He shall give certified copies, under the seal of said court, of all papers and records of which he shall have custody as aforesaid, and such copies shall be evidence in the same manner as other certified copies of records are.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved February 14, 1947.
