

that if any such bonds shall be sold the provisions of Article 31, Section 35, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition) shall be complied with.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of such notes and/or the proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be placed in a special fund by the County Treasurer and shall be paid out by him only on warrants from the County Commissioners of Talbot County for such expenditures as it shall deem to be proper, in the sole discretion of said Board, for the additions and alterations to existing school buildings, to purchase land and erect thereon new school buildings, to purchase new equipment for existing and newly constructed schools and to pay architects and other professional fees in connection with such construction.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said notes and/or bonds and for redeeming said notes and/or bonds as they mature, The County Commissioners of Talbot County shall annually levy such tax upon the assessable property of said County as may be necessary to pay the annual interest on said notes and/or bonds and to redeem said notes and/or bonds as they become due until all of said notes and/or bonds shall mature and be redeemed. The taxes so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected in said County.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That The County Commissioners of Talbot County may appoint a Committee to be known as the "School Advisory Committee", and which shall consist of five representative citizens of Talbot County as the Commissioners shall determine, to serve for such term or terms as the Commissioners may determine subject to removal by the said Commissioners at pleasure. The Committee shall have full power and authority to investigate and report upon the condition of the existing educational system and facilities in Talbot County, and to advise and make recommendations to the County Commissioners of Talbot County of suggested changes therein, including specifically but not by way of limitation the purchase of building sites and the new construction of school buildings; and shall advise and recommend to the said The County Commissioners of Talbot County a plan for financing any expenditures suggested.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 16, 1947.
