

to the Circuit Court of the County wherein the applicant purposes to operate, or to the Superior Court of Baltimore City, if the applicant purposes to operate therein. On any such appeal from the action of the State Board of Education in either revoking such certificate or in affirming the action of the State Superintendent of Schools in denying a certificate, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the action of the State Board of Education is proper and in the public interest. The burden of proof shall be upon the appellant to show that the decision complained of is either against the public interest, or that the State Board of Education's discretion in rendering its decision was not honestly and fairly exercised or was arbitrary or unsupported by any substantial evidence, or was unreasonable or beyond the powers of the Board or illegal. The appeal shall be heard by the Court without a jury or with a jury if either party so requests. If the Court affirms the action of the State Board of Education in revoking a certificate, the revocation of such certificate shall thereupon become effective, but either party shall have the right of appeal to the Court of Appeals from any decision of the Court on the question of denial or revocation of a certificate provided that no such appeal shall have the effect of further staying the revocation of a certificate. There shall be no other remedy in any other courts by way of mandamus, injunction, certiorari or otherwise.

(c) Any such school or educational institution shall be open for inspection by the State Superintendent of Schools or his designated agent, at all reasonable times. Every such school or educational institution shall be required to furnish such information and reports from time to time as the State Superintendent of Schools shall deem necessary and proper in the manner and on forms prescribed by him.

(d) The State Superintendent of Schools is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations not inconsistent with this sub-title to supplement and implement the purposes and provisions hereof, provided that the State Superintendent of Schools shall prior to such issuance give thirty days written notice of such proposed rules and regulations to the schools or educational institutions affected thereby and shall afford such schools or educational institutions a reasonable opportunity to be heard regarding any objections they might have to such rules and regulations. Any school or educational institution affected thereby shall be given reasonable written notice of the final issuance of such rules and regulations together with a copy thereof, and, if aggrieved by any of the provisions therein, shall be entitled to a hearing before the State Board of Education provided such school or educational institution files a
