(a) Any holder of a license under the provisions of this Article, may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location or to sell or assign said license and his stock in trade to another person, provided that application for such transfer or sale shall be made, and that a bulk sales permit is obtained where the stock of alcoholic beverages is to be sold, and the new location or assignee shall be approved as in the case of an original application for such license. Such transfer or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the official issuing the same, upon the payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) in addition to the costs of publication and notice, which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for the transfer or sale.

Thereafter, the Board shall treat the said license in all respects as if it had not previously been issued and reverted, and may issue it to another licensee, or not so issue it, in their discretion, agreeably to the provisions of this Article relating to the issue of licenses for the retail sale of alcoholic beverages. Provided, that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to extend to the disposal of a license by reason of the death of the licensee, but any such contingency shall be covered by the provisions of Section 71 of this sub-title.

68. EVICTIONS. On the tenth day after the holder of any license issued under the provisions of this Article shall have vacated, or been evicted from the premises for which said license was issued, said license shall expire unless an application for approval of a transfer thereof to another location or assignment to another person pursuant to Section 67 of this Article or an application pursuant to Section 71 of this Article has been approved or is then pending, providing, however, that the official authorized to issue licenses may, in his discretion, postpone such expiration for an additional period not exceeding twenty days in any case to avoid undue hardship.

69. DISPLAY OF LICENSES. Every person receiving a license under the provisions of this Article shall frame his license under glass and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read in his place of business, except in the case of a Class F license, which shall be kept in the chief operating office of the corporation in this State.
