

prisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

(b) This section shall apply only to Allegany, Carroll, Charles, Harford and Washington Counties. Provided, that in Allegany County the penalty for a violation thereof shall be a fine not in excess of one thousand dollars, or confinement in the county jail or House of Correction for a period not to exceed two years, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

108. ALLEGANY COUNTY. (a) In Allegany County it shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Article to employ any person under the age of twenty-one years in the sale of alcoholic beverages or in connection with the business thereof.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Article to allow any minor or minors under the age of twenty-one years to loaf or loiter about the place of business for which such license is issued.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Article to keep or maintain any bawdy house upon the licensed premises or in connection therewith, nor shall any licensee have or operate any room or rooms for the purposes of women, or in which any person shall be served alcoholic beverages, except the main room for which said license is issued, or premises described in the application.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Article to allow any gambling of any character upon the premises for which said license is issued.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Article to allow any disorderly or disreputable persons to congregate at the place for which such license is granted.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any licensee, holding a license under this Article for the sale of alcoholic beverages by clubs, to let the privilege granted under such license to any person by any manner of agreement under which such person to whom such privilege might be let could make profit thereby.

(g) All sales of alcoholic beverages by retail dealers shall be for cash only, and no suit may be maintained by any retail dealer against any person for alcoholic beverages which have been sold on credit.

(h) PENALTY. Any person or persons, upon indictment and conviction of violation of any provisions of this section, shall be fined a sum not in excess of $1,000.00, or shall be confined in the jail of Allegany County or in the House of Correction