

shall not become legally binding and effective until they have been approved as aforesaid.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, as it becomes due, and redeeming the said bonds as they mature, The County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, shall levy for the year 1938, and annually thereafter until all of said bonds issued under authority of this Act shall mature and be redeemed, provided the said The County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, in their discretion, issue said bonds, a tax upon the assessable property of Dorchester County sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding, and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become due, said taxes to be collected as other taxes levied in said County are collected.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That each of said Commissions shall have the power in its name for its respective plans to make contracts for the work aforesaid, or any part thereof, or any work or expense incident thereto, as well as for equipping or furnishing the same, subject to the approval of the Board of Education of Dorchester County and the State Superintendent of Schools, as aforesaid, and subject to the approval of The County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland. The said Commissions shall invite sealed proposals for such work or equipment by advertisement to be inserted in two newspapers published in Dorchester County and such other advertisement as they may deem proper, for the performance of the work aforesaid, including heating, and lighting apparatus, ventilation of said buildings, and toilets and other equipment therein, if so decided upon, so as to make the same complete, and the said Commissions may invite bids for any one of these items of construction separately or may invite bids for one or more jointly, in its discretion; said proposals or bids shall be mailed in sealed envelopes addressed to the Chairman of the respective Commissions to inviting said proposals or bids and shall be publicly opened at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement, the respective Commissions reserving unto themselves the right to reject any and all bids, shall award the contract or contracts to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, subject to the approval of the Board of Education of Dorchester County, the State Superintendent of Schools, and The County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, upon the condition that the lowest responsible bidder or bidders give satisfactory bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty as the said Commissions shall respectively determine, conditioned for the