

where and when he was so previously registered. In the case of a woman who claims citizenship by marriage, the Board shall note the name of the person to whom married and where and in what Court he was naturalized, or where previously registered. Under the column headed "Remarks" they shall note whether the applicant is male or female; Provided, that the books to be used at any new general registration in any city or county shall contain a column headed "Sex", with the sub-heading "Male or Female", in which such fact shall be noted. Such new books shall also contain a column headed "Occupation", in which the occupation of the applicant shall be noted. (J) Under the column "Court" the designation of the Court in which, if naturalized, such naturalization was had. (K) Under the column "Qualified Voter," the word "Yes" if the fact shall appear or be determined by a majority of the Board of Registry, or the word "No," if such fact be not established to the satisfaction of the majority of the Board. (L) Under the column "Date of Application," the month, day and year when the applicant presented himself. (N) After the answers of the applicant to the questions under the heads of each and all of the above mentioned columns have been properly entered by the officers in his presence in both registers, and not until then he shall be asked to sign his name upon the same line under the column "Signature," in each of them, and shall sign his name, if he can do so. If, however, he shall state his inability to do so, the officers shall make the entry "Cannot Write" in the place for such signature, and shall follow said entry by a brief notation of the applicant's height, color of eyes, and any distinguishing physical marks. The Board of Registry shall be entitled to receive from the officers having custody thereof the last preceding registration books, for the purpose of comparison and assistance in identification, and if anyone shall apply for registration who appeared in such former registry as disqualified, his name shall be entered in the new registry, but he shall be marked "Disqualified," unless such grounds of disqualification shall have been removed. At the end of the day's registry said officers shall compare the two registers so kept, and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected, by the aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree where there is any difference between them. Each of the said officers having the custody of any of said registers shall then sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter in the book kept by him, so that no new names can be added without discovery. The said Board of Registry shall keep, on blanks to be provided for that purpose by the Board of Supervisors of Elections, an alphabetical list of names, addresses and color of all persons registered, and a separate
