CHAPTER 495.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 67 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1935 Edition), title "Negligence Causing Death", to be known as Section 1A, to follow immediately after Section 1, requiring the Courts of this State to apply the law of another state, District of Columbia or territory of the United States, as the case may be, in cases involving negligence causing death, when such negligence shall have occurred outside of the State of Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 67 of the Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1935 Edition), title "Negligence Causing Death", to be known as Section 1A, to follow immediately after Section 1 thereof, and to read as follows:

1A. In any action instituted in the Courts of this State where it shall appear that the death of a person has been caused by the wrongful act, neglect or default of another person, firm or corporation, and such wrongful act, neglect, or default shall have occurred outside of the State of Maryland, whether in another state, the District of Columbia or territory of the United States, the Courts of this State shall apply the law of such other state, District of Columbia or territory of the United States, to the facts of the particular case, as though such foreign law were the law of this State, provided, however, that the rules of pleading and procedure effective in the Court
