

provisions as are provided in Section 296 of this sub-title, provided that nothing contained herein shall apply to any registered apprentice of a licensed Funeral Director acting under his or her supervision.

298. No license granted or issued under the provisions of this sub-title shall be assignable or transferable and such license shall specify the name of the person, co-partnership or corporation to whom it is issued and the date on which such license shall terminate, and such license shall further state that the person, co-partnership or corporation to whom it has been issued may carry on the funeral directing business in the State of Maryland during the period therein specified; and any renewal of said license shall set out the name of the person, co-partnership or corporation to whom the same has been issued and the period for which it has been issued, and no renewal of such license shall be assignable or transferable.

299. It shall be the duty of any person or persons now licensed to carry on the profession of embalming dead human bodies in this State at the time of the passage of this Act to cause within sixty days after the passage of this Act, his, her or their name or names, residence or place of business, to be registered with the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers of Maryland, whose Secretary shall keep a book for that purpose, and upon the payment of a fee of five dollars the Secretary of said Board shall enter such registration in said book and said Board shall thereupon issue to such person a license signed by the Secretary of said Board and bearing the seal of the Board, which license shall entitle the holder thereof to practice the profession of embalming in the State of Maryland.

300. Before any person or persons shall hereafter engage in the profession of embalming in this State, and before any person or persons now so engaged in said profession of embalming in this State who shall fail to register with said Board in accordance with Section 299 of this Article, shall continue to carry on said profession of embalming in this State, such person or persons shall apply to said Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers for a license to practice embalming; and such applicant or applicants shall present himself or herself before said Board at the time and place to be fixed by said Board, and if the Board shall find, upon due examination and the payment of an examination fee of twenty-five dollars, that the applicant or applicants are of good moral character, twenty-one years of age and free from habits liable to interfere with the performance of the duties which he or she
