

and Embalmers in enforcing the provisions of this sub-title shall be paid out of the receipts as hereinabove provided for.

305. It shall be the duty of the said Board on or before the third Monday of January in each and every year, to make a report in writing to the Governor of this State containing a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of said Board for the year ending on the last day of December prior thereto, any balance of money remaining at the end of the year, after the payment of the salary of the Secretary and inspectors, and the traveling, legal and other expenses of the Board and the Secretary incurred in the discharge of their duties as such shall be reserved by the Treasurer of said Board to meet the necessary expenses for the ensuing year.

306. The provisions of this sub-title shall not be construed as preventing the conducting the business or profession of Funeral Directing by a corporation heretofore licensed, if such corporation is registered by and conforms with such rules and regulations as the Board may prescribe with relation thereto; and hereafter no corporation shall be permitted to operate any branch establishment unless it is in operation at the time of the passage of this Act.

The Board shall not hereafter issue licenses to, nor register any corporation, nor shall any corporation be permitted to conduct the business or profession of Funeral Directing which has not already been licensed and registered.

307. This sub-title shall not be construed as prohibiting two or more licensed funeral directors from operating a joint or partnership business if the business be conducted under the names of all such licensed funeral directors; but no funeral director granted an original license under this sub-title shall conduct business under any other name than the name appearing on his or her license. This section shall not apply to persons heretofore conducting business under a fictitious name.

307A. The Board may grant to individual persons from other States, who are duly licensed Funeral Directors and Embalmers, a license to operate as a Funeral Director or Embalmer in this State, under such terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe, provided that similar privileges are accorded in those States to those originally licensed by this State, and provided that the standards for licensing in the said States are equivalent to those of this State.

308. The State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers of Maryland be, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to establish a school of instruction in which
